

Drama 6 - Final Class Reflection

- Mr. Oncay's Drama Class

After spending some time in the class and working through a few projects, how would you rate yourself on the objectives of the class?

- (You can refer to the first What I Know About Me worksheet to remember goals that you set for yourself).

1=No progress in this area

5=Lots of progress in this area

- Do not give yourself more than three "fives."

I have used my time in class to

1. 1 2 3 4 5 Develop projection/articulation skills
2. 1 2 3 4 5 Increase confidence in public presentations
3. 1 2 3 4 5 Develop skills of social interaction
4. 1 2 3 4 5 Clarify my personal identity
5. 1 2 3 4 5 Become more observant of other people
6. 1 2 3 4 5 Explore human behavior in safe/supervised environment
7. 1 2 3 4 5 Explore new experiences to promote personal and social learning
8. 1 2 3 4 5 Promote creativity by utilizing thinking, feeling, and movement
9. 1 2 3 4 5 Develop my knowledge of scene, plot, and character development
10. 1 2 3 4 5 Improve personal control of my emotions and the communication of those emotions
11. 1 2 3 4 5 Develop teamwork to accomplish common goals
12. 1 2 3 4 5 Integrate my understanding and knowledge of drama with the study of other academic disciplines

Name the area where you made the most progress. Write three or more sentences to explain.

13. _____

(more room on the back)

Name the area where you have not made any progress or very little progress.
Write at least three sentences.

14. _____

15. What will you remember most about Drama class this year?
